

ELIZA HAMPTON.

JULY 21, 1842.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. FURNACE, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Eliza Hampton, report :

Eliza Hampton petitions to have the benefit of the act of July 4, 1836.

The proof may be regarded as sufficient to establish the petitioner's marriage; but they are altogether deficient as to the service of her husband, Preston Hampton.

Your committee therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the case.

ELIZABETH HAMILTON

1817

Read, and the report of the

Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, reported the following

REPORT:

Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Elizabeth Hamilton, report

That Elizabeth Hamilton petitions to have the benefit of the act of July 1815, inasmuch as she was a Revolutionary War soldier, and her husband was a Revolutionary War soldier; but they are altogether destitute as to the means of support, and the committee therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the case.
